

TREES – Group Exhibition

2 March – 5 April 2007
at The Old Sweet Shop

The Old Sweet Shop is pleased to present Trees, a group show curated by Joe Madeira, Piola Massarotto and Martyn Simpson.

Trees have always elicited a profound interest in art history and artists have often centred their work on their evocative power and symbolic beauty.

This exhibition explores the creative potential of trees and their main components – roots, trunks, leaves and paper.

The show features new work by four emerging artists:

Oona Culley
Alex Gough
Jane Gregory
and Chisato Tamabayashi
